Fadeaway

ZZ Ward

There's a red moon rising
Burning a road through the night
There ain't no use in us hiding
Nobody gets out alive
I know that you're strong, and we shine in the dark
We fight through the shadows of old broken hearts
Yeah, there's a red moon rising
Trying to tear us apart

Hold on now, we can run from the fadeaway
And we can make it if we hold on now
It's a love for another day
Yeah we can make it if we

Run, run, run
Bada da da da make it if we run, run, run
Bada da da da just run, run, run
Bada da da da make it if we run, run, run
Bada da da da da just

Hollow bodies surround us
Feeling the weight of the fall
Turning to stone all around us
As we step over em all
There's no way to tell, when it's coming for us
We're one step ahead, and one step is enough
I don't know how it found us
But I know we'll never give up just

Hold on now, we can run from the fadeaway
And we can make it if we hold on now
It's a love for another day
Yeah we can make it if we

Run, run, run
Bada da da da make it if we run, run, run
Bada da da da just run, run, run
Bada da da da make it if we run, run, run
Bada da da da da just run

Baby look we've come, so far
Faster than the light of shooting stars
Fate can't reach, where we are

Run, run, run
Bada da we can make it if we run run run

Run, run, run
Bada da da da make it if we run, run, run
Bada da da da just run, run, run
Bada da da da make it if we run, run, run
Bada da da da just run, run, run
Bada da da da make it if we run, run, run
Bada da da da

Make it if we run
Just run
